VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

PEER SPECIALIST OR PEER ASSISTANT

(COUNTY APPLICATION REQUIRED- Go to: <https://madison-portal.mycivilservice.com/>)

The Madison County Mental Health Department seeks a full-time Peer Specialist or Peer Assistant.

PEER SPECIALIST: The work involves responsibility for utilizing various outreach strategies that encourage peers to engage with others and utilize available services and supports. The incumbent will refer participants to needed services, including behavioral and physical health care, employment, financial supports, education, and social activities that promote community integration. The work is performed under the direct supervision of the Recovery Center Coordinator and the administrative supervision of the Director of Community Mental Health Services. Supervision over the work of others is not a function of an employee in this class. The incumbent performs related work as required.

PEER ASSISTANT: This position differs from the Peer Specialist position in that the Recovery Center Coordinator will provide close supervision initially to ensure the incumbent is suitable to meet with peers alone.
